Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Vietnam Veteran Dale Holtey began his employment with the South Dakota Federal Property Agency (SDFPA) at Huron, South Dakota, on November 28, 1977; and,

Whereas, Dale and his wife, Linda, gave life and love to two children, Tammy and Troy, who in turned have blessed them with five grandchildren: Jaden, Logan, Emma, Tiahna and Tygan; and,

Whereas, Throughout Dale's years as a public servant, he earned a national reputation as one of the best surplus property screeners in the country; and,

Whereas, Dale's quick wit and ready banter in the workplace and his outstanding customer service will be sorely missed at SDFPA; and,

Whereas, Dale has surpassed the "Rule of 85" and has decided to embark on yet another career with the federal government in the Transportation Security Administration; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan as he retires from a distinguished career in state government on June 16, 2006:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 16, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join his co-workers, family, and friends in congratulating him on his many years of loyal, dedicated service to the state of South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
